The Six P's

The company's values rest on the founder's Six P's model for building brands:
People, Product, Package,
Price, Promotion and Potential.

"The P of People always comes first. We are a family-owned business working with other family-owned and/or people-oriented businesses," says Bill.

At [yellow tail], we believe in fun. Our mission is to make great tasting wine that is easy to enjoy. We don't get mixed up in complicated wine speak. Rather, our wine is meant to bring people together with great taste and consistent quality. Share it with friends, family, and loved ones; it's great for any occasion. Simply put: Open it, drink it, and enjoy it whenever, wherever because seriously good wine doesn't have to be serious.
